

Following are the Collaboration guidelines with IndianResearchers.Com

1. Collaboration guidelines with IndianResearchers.Com that Charge No Fees

IndianResearchers.Com, committed to advancing academic and professional knowledge, extends an invitation to institutions engaged in organizing Conferences, Workshops, Faculty Development Programs, Courses, and Capacity Building Programs. We appreciate your dedication to not charging any registration fees to participants for events that are fully funded, whether by government or private agencies or through self-funding. In line with this commitment, we present the following terms and conditions for our collaboration:

a. No Publication Fees

We do not levy any charges for the publication of your programs on IndianResearchers.Com. As part of our commitment to supporting your initiatives, we offer a publication platform free of charge.

b. Publication Analytics

IndianResearchers.Com does not provide any data related to the publication analytics of your content. While we ensure the visibility of your programs through our platform, detailed analytics and data pertaining to program publication are not within the scope of our services.

c. Registration Commitment

It is important to note that IndianResearchers.Com cannot guarantee any specific number of registrations for your programs. While we strive to enhance the visibility of your offerings, the number of registrations remains subject to various factors beyond our control.

Disclaimer

IndianResearchers.Com operates as a facilitator in promoting your events and programs through our platform. The success of your programs is influenced by various factors, and our role is to provide a publication avenue and platform visibility. The ultimate outcomes and registrations are contingent on factors such as program quality, relevance, and participant engagement.
